Atoka Indian Citizen: After Jim Reed's failure in Oklahoma (as it will be a failure) to stir up the people of this state against President Wilson, we will guess that one Thomas P. Gore, now holding an office that should be filled by a good loyal democrat, will come home to see if he can't stir up a sentiment against Mr. Wilson. It is not the league of nations that Reed and Gore are fighting, but Mr. Wilson. These two small bore politicians and ungrateful wards of Missouri and Oklahoma have just sense enough (not to be statesmen) but to fight intelligence. What fools the people were when they elected them.

LABOR CAN STOP INCREASE IN PRICES

MEN SHOULD ASSERT POWER AND STOP ONRUSH OF STRIKES AT ONCE.

If organized labor could be made to take the only public-spirited stand and realize the mischief that lies behind its demand for increased wages in trades where wages have increased in proportion to living costs, much more would be accomplished in checking the onrush of strikes that are now menacing the industrial world in many lines of activity, states the weekly review of the American Architect. With careful handling by leaders of ability to lead the men in the right direction in the present crisis the unions can be brought to help the country and themselves.

Wages have been largely increased in nearly all trades thus establishing the first and main cause for high prices. These advances do not come out of the employing class as some imagine. They are simply added to the cost of goods. After everyone has had their advance and paid out the money in higher prices, they discover they are no better off. Those who have saved money are worse off, as now their bank deposits will not buy as much as formerly. It all goes to show that much of the discontent of wage workers has come of the apprehension they felt lest prices should outstrip their pay.

If labor can be convinced that prices have halted their wages stop at relief levels. Undoubtedly there are workers who have not shared in the advance in wages. They still have to receive advances sufficient to make the existing level of costs tolerable to them, but among the wage earning class these have become the exception.

The sudden outburst of labor unrest is clearly traceable to the fact that when the moment drew near when the wage raise seemed to stop there came an inconquerable desire among organized workers to seize the final increase. Discretion must eventually succeed this excited grasping for a last advance. The time has come for the prudent element to assert itself. Certain of the recent wage demands have, by their radical nature and the reckless attitude of the leaders backing these demands, given an opening for a strong movement to return to a position that is more within the limit of reason.

Pending the restoration of sounder economic conditions, the unions so far have shown little disposition to bury the industrial hatchet. To the discredit of its demands upon the private employer and the government, indiscreetly pushing its advantage at an unpropitious time. They are pursuing a course of extreme folly and apparently starting a social convulsion, the end of which cannot be foreseen. These are times when no person can safely demand an exorbitant return for the service he renders society. The people are tired of the illusionary promises of demagogues. They want the real facts and the truth, and nothing but the truth, without reservation.

Anti-Trust Cases Dormant Since War to be Pushed

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Because of the announced intention of the government to push prosecution of anti-trust cases held in abeyance during the war, the session of the supreme court which began yesterday to prove one of the most important in the history of the court.

Cases pending include those against the alleged Anthracite coal trust, the United States Steel Corporation, the Eastman Kodak Company, the Associated Billposters and Distributors of the United States and Canada, the American Can Company, the Quaker Oats Company and also the Southern Pacific Merger Case.

Following its usual custom, the court did no business immediately today so that Chief Justice White and his associates might call on President Wilson. Arguments in pending cases will begin tomorrow with the coal case the first to be heard. The steel case probably will be the second to be argued. Others will be argued at intervals, but under an agreement between the government and the Quaker Oats Company that case will not be heard until January.

General public interest attaches to another case before the court, that of the right of breweries to continue the manufacture of beer containing 2.75 per cent of alcohol. Appeals from lower court decrees at Baltimore and New Orleans already have been filed.

A case of importance to business interests is the Macomber stock dividend proceedings which involve the constitutionality of the provisions of the 1916 income tax act taxing stock dividends as income.

Although the supreme court at its last term upheld the constitutionality of the espionage act, a large number of appeals are still pending in cases growing out of convictions under that law. Among these is the case of James Peterson, candidate for the republican nomination in opposition to Senator Nelson, of Minnesota, in 1918, and who was sentenced to four years' imprisonment because of newspaper articles he wrote. The appeal of Victor Berger, representative-elect from Wisconsin from conviction under the law also is pending.

James D. Maher, clerk of the court, announces that the number of appeals filed this term is 125 less than during the last terms. While there is no explanation of this decrease in the number of appeals, Mr. Maher said he believed it was due to the fact that lawyers generally are becoming more inclined not to appeal cases of only minor importance.

GET READY FOR "FLU"

Keep Your Liver Active, Your System Purified and Free From Colds by Taking Calotabs, the Nauseless Calomel Tablets, that are Delightful, Safe and Sure.

Physicians and Druggists are advising their friends to keep their systems purified and free from colds in perfect working order as a protection against the return of influenza. They know that a clogged up system and a lazy liver favor colds, influenza and serious complications.

To cut short a cold overnight and to prevent serious complications take one Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea, no griping, no sickening after effects. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified and refreshed and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—no danger. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. Every druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not perfectly delighted with Calotabs.—(Adv.)

ARTHUR CAPPER TO THE RESCUE

TAKES UP CUDGEL FOR THE FARMERS IN THE SENATE HIGH LIVING COST DISCUSSION.

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—The farmers' side of the high cost of living question was presented to the Senate today by Senator Capper, republican, of Kansas, who declared that, while farmers are selling their products at a loss in declining markets, the consumers are paying rising prices.

Faulty distribution was blamed largely for this "remarkable spectacle" and the senator urged a number of remedies to increase production. He deplored the numerous industrial strikes and the small representation given agriculture in the industrial conference.

"In our efforts to get rid of the high cost of living disease," said Mr. Capper, "I fear we are in great danger of dying of the remedy. As a result of Washington's effort to reduce high prices by breaking down entirely the cost of food, we have the remarkable spectacle of a rise of one per cent in the cost of living, coincident with market drops that are putting live stock raisers out of business and causing serious losses to other producers."

Illustrating the anomalous situation of farmers and consumers, Senator Capper said farmers are selling their wheat at a loss, adding:

"It takes four and a half bushels of wheat to make a barrel of flour. The wheat raiser gets about $8.37 for the wheat, the miller $12.70, the baker $58.70 and the hotel keeper here in Washington, as it is doled out in thin slices $58.70."

The government, through the grain corporation, Senator Capper said, profited $23,000,000 at the expense of farmers last year, the farmers selling from 20 to 70 cents less than the guaranteed price.

"The situation of the livestock farmer is even more deplorable," he said. "Farmers are selling their grain fed beeves and hogs for less than it cost to produce them, but the consumer finds little or no change in the price of meat. While everything the farmer must buy demands the high dollar, the price of his commodities, the cheapest in the markets, are held down by a foreign embargo and a government guarantee."

"Without visibly helping the consumer we have brought about a crisis in our most fundamental and vital industry by forcing the producer to accept prices at which he cannot continue to produce, while he and the consumer are compelled to pay prices at which they are forced to curtail the home demand."

Farmers are being driven out of business and drifting to the cities because of conditions in agricultural industry, Senator Capper declared. Citing losses sustained by agricultural producers Senator Capper said the recent decline in livestock prices had cost producers $80,000,000. Livestock growers, he said, do not control the markets, and, like other agricultural producers must accept prices fixed by others.

Farm wages have doubled, land values have risen enormously and everything the farmer buys, he said, have risen from 50 to 300 per cent.

Among the remedies suggested by Senator Capper were cessation of "federal government propaganda which tends to bear down the prices of farm products."

"Executive departments," he said, "should seek by every means at their command to open wider markets to the farmer by lifting the embargo on wheat and wheat flour to Europe, by extending credits to European governments and by lowering ocean freight rates."

Legislation to free the livestock producer of alleged control of the markets by the packers also was urged by Senator Capper who suggested establishment of co-operative farm selling agencies.

"Price making in necessities of life," he said, "should never again be left to the gamblers of the exchange or to corporate monopoly."

WITH SOME new yarn.
TO RELATE.
TO THE confiding folks.
AT HOME.
AND RECENTLY.
HE HAD to go.
TO MARSHALL county.
TO A case there.
AND HIS client.
WAS IN jail.
(THAT'S WHERE they usually are.)
AND JOHN had to go.
INSIDE THE jail.
TO CONFER with him.
AND ACROSS the hall.
WAS AN old negro.
WHO LISTENED.
TO THE conference.
WITH APPARENT interest.
AND WHEN John got through.
HE STOPPED.
FOR A minute.
TO TALK to the negro.
AND THE latter.

APPEARED PLEASED.
WITH THE attention.
AND THE first thing.
THAT JOHN asked was:
"TELL ME, Uncle.
"HOW LONG.
"ARE THEY going.
"TO KEEP you in jail?"
AND THE darkie replied:
"THREE WEEKS."
AND JOHN told him.
THAT WASN'T so bad.
AND ASKED him.
WHAT HE was in for.
AND THE negro said:
"SHOOTING MY wife."
AND JOHN said.
"YOU DON'T mean to tell me.
"THAT THEY only put you.
"IN THE jail here.
"FOR THREE weeks."
AND THE negro grinned.
AND SAID:
"YAS SAH, Boss.
"AND AFTAH that.
"THEY'S GWINE to hang me."
AND JOHN came on home.
I THANK you.

What Kind of Girl Is Best For Wife, the Rich or Poor

"Now that marriage is becoming so tediously commonplace, almost as commonplace as divorce," as a popular young actor remarks, it is interesting to see it through a supreme court justice's eyes. Recently word came from Chicago that two justices who had listened to more than seven thousand divorce cases, had determined that the "middle class girl" made the best wife. Justice Peter A. Hendrick of the New York Supreme Court does not think so. Recently he told why, thus:

"The rich girl or the poor, the girl of high estate or the girl of no estate—it makes little difference if she goes into marriage with the right attitude.

A Thousand Reasons Given.

"Nobody could give any one reason why so many marriages turn out dismally. I've heard a thousand reasons. But usually it is because the wife or the husband expects everything of the other, though taking for granted the consort's love will excuse in her or him all the faults of the universe.

"The best wife is the one who is willing to enter real partnership on a fifty-fifty basis. Too much learning of a kind does not make some women too 'advanced' for the good wife or mother. But never too much education, for education is enlightenment."

Justice George Barrett of Chicago had said:

"The daughter of a good mother who conducts her own home, and that means the girl in moderate circumstances, makes the best wife."

"It's a question of education and bringing up, with the future in view. The home-making middle class mother trains her daughter to do those things which it will be necessary for her to know how to do when she encounters the problems of home and rearing children."

Rich Not Trained Right.
"The daughter of the rich, if properly trained, makes as good a wife as any other. But the girl of wealth does not, as a rule, receive the kind of training essential to married happiness."

Judge David Brothers of Chicago had this to say:

"And the poor girl often marries to escape poverty and brings to her marital responsibilities less experience and less education and less interest than it must have."

Justice Wagner of New York makes this comment:

"After one has plowed through all the evidence and circumstances in hundreds of divorce cases, he's mighty mixed up in his opinions about the requisites of a perfect wife. She doesn't seem to belong to any class or creed or race."

Hawaiian Race Is Doomed to Become Extinct Says Lane

By the Associated Press
HONOLULU, T. H., (By Mail.)

In the next century the full blood Hawaiian will be extinct, declared former Mayor John C. Lane in a luncheon address here recently. Mr. Lane is a Hawaiian and one of the leaders of his people.

"Among the Hawaiians," added Mr. Lane, "the present ratio is 225 deaths yearly in excess of births. On the other hand, births of part Hawaiians exceed the deaths by 775 and at this rate in 100 years there should be a new Hawaiian race, a cosmopolitan race."

When Captain Cook discovered the islands over 140 years ago, he estimated the population at half a million. Today, Mr. Lane said, there are only 22,800 full-blooded Hawaiians and 16,000 half Hawaiians. The Hawaiian Protective Association, said Mr. Lane, has been formed to protect, educate, uplift and rehabilitate the Hawaiian race and the first step is to get the natives back to the soil. He asked for cooperation in getting through congress a bill to set aside one-third of the public land of Hawaii for the remaining natives and their heirs.

WHERE POLITICS IS CRIMINAL

Among the numerous causes of the present unrest the American congress is by no means the least. It began its session dedicated to the work of destroying public confidence in the party that had conducted a successful war. To destroy that confidence it became necessary to attack every war measure, to criticize every war leader, to probe every war agency. And from this unworthy program congress did not shrink. It assailed most viciously every man and every department that had anything to do with prosecuting the war.

The result has been most disastrous. The public no longer speaks of the army with the enthusiasm manifested in 1918. The virus spread by congressional vituperation and congressional investigation has reached every section of the country. The public feels that somehow it was duped into the war, duped during the war, and is being duped after the war. The sacrifice and the heroism of the past are forgotten. Too well has the public been taught to think only of enormous waste and enormous taxation. The inevitable mistakes of a sorely driven administration, accepted as a matter of course and accepted cheerfully while our armies were marching, are now capitalized by a well organized political party and employed with skillful ingenuity to sow the seeds of unrest among the people of the states.

Every mistake and every wrong has been so magnified and so well advertised that the greatest success of history is now largely regarded as an unexampled failure. Congress has succeeded in bringing the public to believe that the administration failed ignominiously. But in humiliating the administration congress has almost endangered the country. The government itself is no longer respected by uncounted thousands of those taught to believe that the war agencies failed. Back of all this unrest and lack of respect for the government you will too often find the poison strewed by a partisan congress. One of the cruellest crimes of history has been perpetrated by a congress that placed a party's welfare above the good name of the republic.

Somehow or other we cannot get very much excited over the oppression of China by the Japanese. China has ten times the fighting strength of Japan, and if she really wants protection, let her lick the everlasting daylight out of the Japs. It's her own funeral—let her attend to it herself.

The negligible vote cast by women of the Fifth district in last Saturday's election is explained by Adelaide Parker in the Oklahoma News with the rather reckless assertion that women are too lazy to vote. Possibly the Fall styles for voting had not arrived in time for the election.

Neither or we losing any sleep over the scarcity of food in Russia. The finest farms on earth are in Russia, and if the Macovite wants to quit raising crops in order to raise hades, let him pay the fiddler. It's up to him.

The bicycle was supplanted by the automobile, the automobile by the airplane, and by the time the airplane gets to be commonplace people will be traveling through the air on electric currents.

The Krupps and DuPonts can well afford to spend a few million dollars to defeat the league of nations and may be they have sense enough to understand that.

It is more than probable that Chicago now takes the "Red menace" more seriously than it did when Bill Thompson was elected mayor.

At least it can be said for modern styles of dress that they have rendered it unnecessary for a man to take a wife "sight unseen."

What's the use of having a new state constitution? No one seems to pay any attention to the one we have.

Unlike the Jericho of olden times the league of nations cannot be destroyed by the blast of rams' horns.

It's a mighty poor time to urge reduction in cotton acreage with the staple bringing 39 cents.

And the public servant problem is getting to be just about as vexatious as the other kind.

The State Press

Konawa Chief-Leader: The most notable prey of the hunting season will be found at the October weddings.

Tishomingo Capital-Democrat: The kind of a girl to tie to is one who thinks more of her good name than of a good time.

Muskogee Democrat: Now that the public has a list of the gifts Wilson received in Europe, can't some senator think of a new way to annoy him?

Oklahoma News: Authors must abandon Europe as a field of romance. It is picturesque, but too many of us have learned that "picturesque" includes the quaint little cootie.

Frederick Leader: A Frederick pastor's appeal to his hearers to "give until it hurt" wouldn't mean much to some men, who suffer excruciating pain at the very thought of giving a penny.

Frederick Leader: Anxious inquirers are informed that although the time will not be changed until the last Sunday in October, it will then be changed for good so they may as well be patient.

Lawton Constitution: The "crime of Shantung" of which we heard nothing till of late, was committed in 1898 when China was forced to yield a part of her province to Germany. Japan, one of our allies in the war, now has time-lim charge after driving the Germans out.

Hints for Halloween

"Tell us what to have for our Halloween frolic," some requests have come from readers. Well, to begin with, make the house look as pretty and "woody" as possible, and use colored shades for the lights. Yellow one of crepe paper with decorations of bats and witches and other Halloween emblems cut from black paper and pasted on them are pretty and make a mellow glow for the room. If there is a closet or recess downstairs, turn it into a witch's den or cave, or a fortune teller's bower, and fortunes can be fixed in various clever ways. Perhaps you can find someone who knows enough about reading palms to make that interesting for your guests.

A huge pumpkin, for the center of the dining room table, hollowed out and full of chrysanthemums, makes a lovely table piece, and a Halloween cake full of tiny gifts, and a ring, coin, thimble and a button which promise the same as they do in the bride's cake, is an added decoration for the table and furnishes a lot of fun in the cutting. By all means have the lights for your table soft, or use candles.

Some of the old sports which people always enjoy doing are bobbing for apples in a tub of water, or swinging in a doorway, walking downstairs backward holding a lighted candle and mirror in which you are to see the face of your lover, running round the house three times, your mouth full of water, your hands full of salt and not spilling a bit of either; telling fortunes by counting apple seeds, or roasting chestnuts, and playing the old game of snap dragon, which has been a favorite game at Halloween time for years and years. A peanut hunt or a peanut race is fun, too. Be careful to choose games to play that are simple and easy to explain to your guests, so that they can all enter into the spirit of them heartily. Of course you can have a scary party by asking your guests to come dressed as witches or ghosts, and to wear or carry their greatest horror. Have someone play a weird air on the piano and let your ghostly guests march or dance in line, displaying their horrors. There will be some, perhaps, that cannot be guessed right away, but have several older folks as judges decide on the one who has shown his or her greatest horror in the cleverest way, and have a prize of some kind for them.

LION CLUBS PLAN FOR BIG STATE CAMPAIGN

OKMULGEE, Okla., Oct. 23.—Under the direction of V. Floyd Self of Okmulgee, district governor of the International Lions club, a campaign for the organization of Lions clubs in every city of 5,000 or more inhabitants in both Oklahoma and Kansas is to be undertaken at once. Live cities of less than 5,000 population which make application for organization will also be included in the drive. District Governor Self, who was elected at the international convention of Lions clubs at Chicago, in July, has announced that he is out to win a $500 loving cup that has been offered to the district governor accomplishing the most for the advancement of Lionism in his district during the present year.

This district which is known as the Oklahoma-Kansas district, embraces these two states. The district has the largest number of clubs of any in the Union.

The Lions organization is modeled after the International Rotary and works along the same lines, there being no conflict or rivalry between the two organizations except in the effort to serve best the communities in which the organizations exist. The Okmulgee club, one of the largest and most active in the state, has a membership of 60 and is a vital force in civic affairs of the city. The club here has just completed the installation of $600 worth of playground apparatus in one of the city parks.

Lions clubs are now organized in Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Muskogee, Eufaula, Henryetta, El Reno, Chickasha, Shawnee, Wewoka, Holdenville, Ada, Vinita and Miami. It is planned to organize clubs in Enid, Guthrie, Lawton, Bartlesville, Wagoner, Nowata and other cities in the state.

Ardmore: Ambitious Ada (Okla.) shows signs of progress nearly every year now. Ada has shaved off her moustaches. The Evening News of Ada carries a front-page story to the effect that the moustache is not so popular in Ada as it used to be, and the News makes much of this important discovery. We are glad to admit Ambitious Ada to the fellowship of towns where the moustache disappeared ten or twenty years ago and an upper-lip hirsute impediment is looked upon as being twin-brother to a last year's bird's nest.

ROBERT MINOR FREED OF ESPIONAGE CHARGE

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Robert Minor, American newspaper cartoonist, who was detained by American military authorities in France on a charge of being connected with clans of German Spartacists to circulate Bolshevik literature among American troops, was released because of insufficient evidence to warrant his trial, the senate was informed today by Secretary Baker. While recommending the release the Judge Advocate of the American Expeditionary Forces expressed the opinion that Minor was guilty. Since the release of the cartoonist, the Secretary added, evidence has been obtained connecting him with the preparation of 6,000 pamphlets which were to be circulated among American soldiers on the Rhine.

WEAVER AND HIS OPPONENT ARE OFF

BOTH HE AND HARRELD MAKE PLANS TO START VIGOROUS SPEAKING CAMPAIGN IN FIFTH.

By News' Special Service
OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 23.—Plans for the general campaign in the Fifth district which is to precede the special election scheduled for November 8 began to assume definite shape yesterday in conferences of democratic and republican leaders.

Claude Weaver, democratic nominee, spent the day in Pauls Valley and Garvin county, looking over available men for his campaign committee, and announcement of the appointment of members of the committee probably will be made within a few days. Ben F. Lafayette, chairman of the democratic state central committee, conferred with Weaver managers on details of the campaign.

Weaver was accompanied on the Garvin county trip by Representative J. Thomas Hefflin, who spoke at Pauls Valley last night in the interest of Weaver's candidacy and will speak here tomorrow night. Campaign managers of J. W. Harreld, republican nominee, yesterday were busy planning a speaking tour for their candidate.

McClintic to Take Stump.
Representative Jim McClintic, of Snyder, arrived in the city yesterday to spend most of his time in the district speaking and work for Weaver until the election.

While there is no doubt as to the political complexion of the district, which has shown a nominal majority of 5,000 in past, democratic leaders plan an aggressive fight against such apathy and lack of interest as characterized the primary campaign and election. Overconfidence on the part of the democrats who may rely too much on the democratic majorities of the past is the only thing, democratic leaders assert, that could give the republicans a shadow of a chance.

Democrats Confident of Winning.
Harreld has announced that he will make the league of nations the issue in the election, taking the negative side of the question, and democratic leaders yesterday expressed pleasure at the matching by the republicans of the fight on this issue, because they feel that the light vote polled by Ed Boyle, anti-league candidate in the primary, effectively puts at rest the anti-league issue and shows the district is behind the pact. Boyle received less than one vote for each precinct in the district.

While democratic leaders were gearing up their machinery, G. O. P. managers, under the leadership of J. J. McGraw, republican national committeeman, conferred at the Skirvin hotel on ways and means of advancing the claims of their standard bearer.

McGraw Praises Harreld.
"In the selection of Judge Harreld, as our candidate, the republicans have chosen one of the very best men in the district. Judge Harreld's success in business has shown his ability to lead, and I am sure the electorate of the Fifth district will rally to the support of the candidacy of such a man," said McGraw in voicing his opinion about the G. O. P. candidate and his chances for success.

The apathy in the democratic primary, he said, "indicates to the thinking man that the president's desire for rubber stamp followers is meeting with disapproval, and declared that 'the Fifth district, being the most thickly populated in the state, should be represented by a man who will think for himself, and will not at all times follow the dictates of a postmaster-general.'"

Committee to Be Named Today.
Plans were outlined for the campaign to send Claude Weaver to congress at a meeting held by Judge W. H. Woods, of Purcell, and a number of Weaver supporters here last night.

Five committeemen are to be named for each county today, and the chairman of the speaker's committee.

Harreld declared last night that

A. L. Hilpert was as acceptable to him as chairman of the republican committee as Marion Henderson the newly elected chairman and disclaimed all responsibility for the change in chairman.

"I had nothing to do with the selection of the chairman for the republican congressional committee. The committee acted upon its own initiative. I had nothing to do with the motives which actuated it. Hilpert was acceptable to me and Henderson, the new chairman, is a personal friend of mine and is acceptable to me also," he said.

Democrats are going to be prepared for any kind of an onslaught made by the republicans, and plan to bring many men of national reputation into the district to support Weaver.

How Much Rent Do You Pay?

If you are a renter, do you realize that you make your landlord a present of your house every ten years?

The following figures show the amount of rent you will pay in ten to thirty years, with 6 per cent interest compounded annually:

At $15 per month:
In 10 years.....$ 2,372.52
In 15 years.....$ 4,150.64
In 20 years.....$ 6,621.93
In 25 years.....$ 9,875.51
In 30 years.....$ 14,230.11

It is a sound business principle to make an investment that will under-throw. Invest in your own home—not in a distant state or foreign land. If the principal were followed, "get rich quick concerns" would not flourish, and little money would be lost in real estate investments.

We still have a few lots left in BEAUTIFUL BELMONT ADDITION to sell on the original terms, that is, one dollar down and fifty cents per week, no taxes or interest for two years. Be a land owner. Invest now and save money!

Germans Plan Big Colonizing Scheme In Mexican State

By the Associated Press

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 22.—Concrete evidence of German colonization plans for Mexico as revealed here yesterday with the announcement of an enterprise for the irrigation of 200,000 hectares of land in the Fuerte river valley, in the state of Sinaloa, where thousands of German immigrants are expected to buy small parcels of land on a twenty year payment plan.

The corporation is being floated by Jose Meakanay, a Mexico City capitalist, with the support of General Ramon Iturbe, governor of Sinaloa. It is proposed to construct a dam at Saint Blas, securing from the government a concession for the use of enough water from the Fuerte river for the proposed colony. The land is declared to be extremely fertile and the plan is being backed by German banks here.

Until a few months ago the water concession for the Fuerte valley was held by the United Sugar companies of Los Mochis Sinaloa, headed by Benjamin F. Johnson of Chicago, Ill. The concessions to the sugar companies granted twenty years ago was for the use of 75 per cent of the river's flow, but it is said to have decreased to eight cubic meters per second.

Promoters of the present irrigation project declare the old concession was reduced because of the opposition of many land holders along the Fuerte river to the companies controlling 75 per cent of the water while only owning 5 per cent of the land in that region which could be irrigated.

Representative "Joe" Campbell declares that he cannot support the league of nations. Not that "Uncle Joe" has a vote coming on that matter, but he wants it understood that he is still a supporter of the old stripe, the kind which for a long time maintained a tariff wall about the United States, the kind which was responsible for the decadence of the American merchant marine, and the kind which now would leave American commerce and American interests everywhere at the mercy of European belligerents. In other words, "Uncle Joe" merely wants the public to know that he is keeping the record straight.—Frederick Leader.

OVERLOADED

There is a limit to the load anything can carry. It is easy to see the overload when some one is trying to get it on a wagon. There are other burdens far more difficult to handle, but that are not so easily seen.

The greatest burden any business ever has to struggle with is that of trying to keep on its feet when its income fails to meet expenses.

Your telephone company has to buy labor and material; and it must meet these expenses by selling service. If you overload it with operating expenses that are greater than its income, it can't keep going.

You certainly want the girls and men who are devoting themselves to giving you telephone service to have fair wages. And you know how much it costs to buy any kind of material these days.

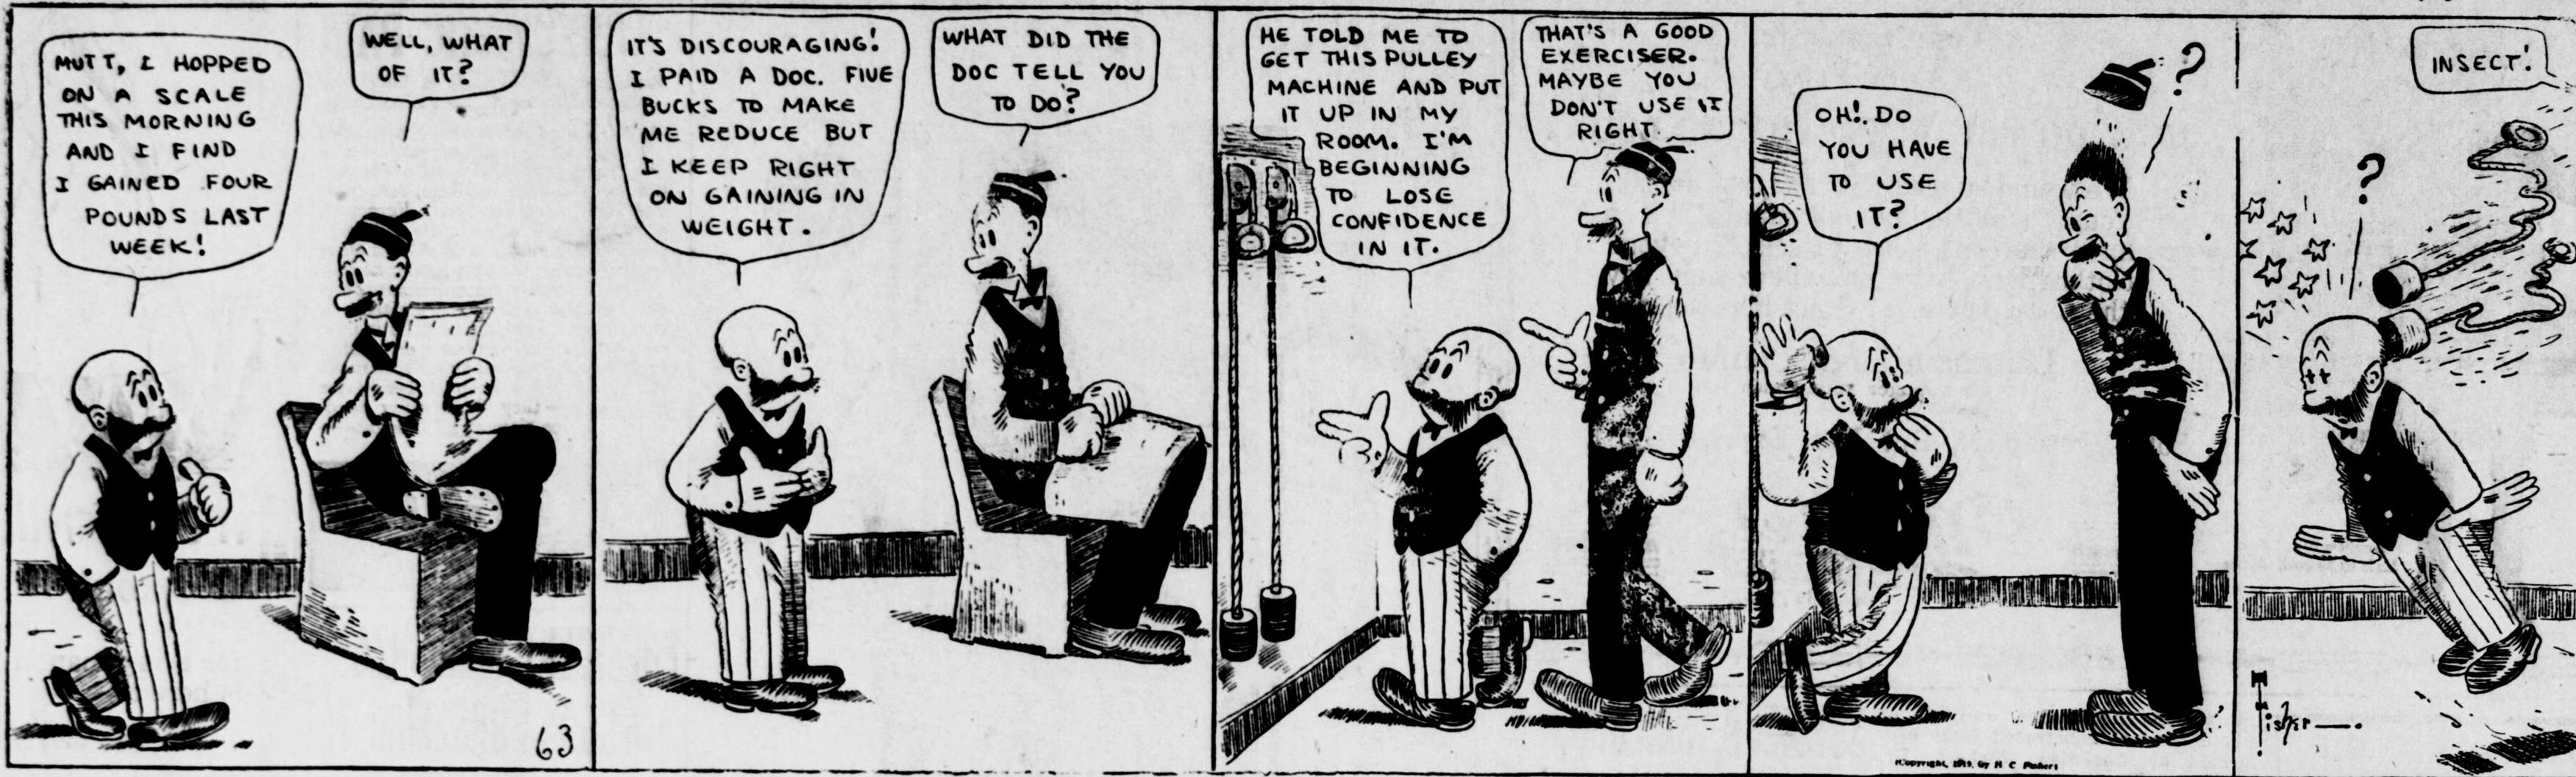

So, you see, the telephone can only operate if its income is sufficient to meet present expenses.

CHICAGO WELCOMES THE BELGIAN HERO-PRIEST

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—Cardinal Mercier, hero of Belgium, came to Chicago yesterday and was greeted by throngs wherever he appeared. The climax came last night when a crowd of 5,000 at the Auditorium cheered him. Mayor William Hale Thompson welcomed the cardinal on behalf of the city.

From the time he arrived in the morning until he retired at night Cardinal Mercier won a continuous ovation.

"Who told the kaiser to go to hell?" shouted throngs as he passed through the streets.

"Cardinal Mercier!" answered back an echoing roar.

Cardinal Mercier was the guest of Archbishop Mundelein of Chicago. He was officially received by the church at the Holy Name cathedral by the Archbishop and presented to high church dignitaries of the middle west. Pontifical high mass was celebrated by Bishop Dunne of Peoria.

At the Auditorium Cardinal Mercier thanked America for her aid in the war.

"We of Belgium love you of America, for you have shown that you are a people actuated by the same high ideals as ours," he said.

In welcoming the cardinal, Mayor Thompson said:

"The part that his eminence played in the dark days of the war, in his deeds of mercy and in his heroic attempts to assuage and minimize the horrors of war which fell like a scourge upon his people through no fault of theirs, has made him a place and a welcome in the hearts of the American people."

No Worms in a Healthy Child.

All children troubled with worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance.

Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

CORDED HEM GIVES GRACEFUL LINES TO THIS VELVET GOWN

BY ELOISE.

Here is a gown which seems to have been designed especially for the woman who can not wear the prevalent hip trimming. It is built on rather straight lines, but there is a slight tendency towards the egg or barrel silhouette. This is brought about by the cording hem which draws the skirt in slightly about the ankles, and also by the elongated waistline. These two features mark it as a new fad, and the cording hem is an excellent way to add grace to one of these short skirts which are a Paris fad.

The gown, which is appropriate for a formal dinner or any evening affair, is made of a deep shade of pink chiffon velvet. The skirt is heavily embroidered with crystal beads and pearls. Strands of the beads slip over the arm and form the only semblance of a sleeve there is to be seen. The bodice is not cut low in either back or front, and is perfectly plain with a round, or Jenny, neckline. It is built on the chemise or panel style, falling loose from the shoulders to the long waistline and not extending under the arms at all. An under bodice, made very snug, takes care of that part of the frock.

RAILROADS ARE NEXT TO HELPLESS SEEMS

Mr. Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, has issued the following statement relative to the wheat situation:

"My associates and I have been and are giving most earnest consideration to the transportation of wheat but it is important to have it clearly understood that present inability to transport wheat is due to causes which the railroad administration cannot control. On May twentieth and again on May twenty-third the railroad administration issued notices to the public that in view of an expected large crop of wheat and the necessity of utilizing all available railroad equipment to the fullest extent possible, the wheat crop would have to be handled under permit system under which wheat would not be accepted for transportation until there were facilities for unloading it at destination. Permit system which is administered in connection with grain corporation was put into effect in accordance with public notice on August first and since that time permits for shipping wheat have been issued only when there were facilities at destination for unloading it. Reason railroad administration has not been supplying more cars for wheat is that the elevators are full to the proposed destination and consequently the wheat could not be unloaded from cars. It is absolutely necessary to avoid a situation where vast numbers of railroad cars would be filled with grain which could not be disposed of at destinations, because this would result in practically taking the cars out of transportation service and using them for storage and depriving the public generally of cars which are badly needed for business of every sort. Railroad administration is prepared as an emergency measure to provide ample freight cars to take care of all wheat that can be unloaded out of the cars at destinations, giving preference to wheat on the ground. The situation thus becomes one of finding elevator capacity to take care of the wheat at destination."

BAPTIST CAMPAIGN TO AID IN EUROPE

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 22.—As the first practical step in the program of spiritual reconstruction of Europe, made possible by the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, twenty-seven native missionaries are being employed by the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention to do special work in the new republic of Czechoslovakia. Dr. T. B. Ray, associate secretary of the board and survey director of the Baptist 75 Million Campaign, announced here today.

At a recent conference of Baptist leaders from all parts of Czechoslovakia, held at Prague, volunteers for the preaching of the gospel in that country were called for, and twenty-seven of the ablest young men of the new nation responded, it is said. Appointment of these volunteers is now in process by the Foreign Mission Board and these men, a majority of whom are university graduates, all of whom have been engaged in more remunerative

In order that the service men discharged from the United States Forces may know the advantages and the opportunities of Government Live Insurance and in order that I might more easily get the information I have to these men, I shall write a series of articles for the Ada Evening News dealing with this subject.

Insurance in General.

Anyone who tells you that life insurance is not worth while, is doing you an injury. Life insurance is not a "gamble" but is a method of providing against the certain loss and expense that come with death and old age. Practically nine out of ten people either die or have to depend more or less on relatives or charity before reaching the age of sixty-five. It is the man who does not insure, therefore, who is the gambler, and he is betting against a sure thing. It is the man and his family that has a hard time to make ends meet that suffers most and needs the most protection when he is disabled or dies.

Don't think for one minute that you can provide for death and old age by means of a savings account. You may die before it amounts to anything. On the other hand, insurance is an absolutely certain way of saving money; every premium you pay makes you a richer man if you live, and the very first premium insures the payment of the entire amount of your policy to your wife or other relatives if you die. Besides these, it makes you save; the young man will do without a few frivolities in order to meet his premiums and at the end of a few years will have a cash reserve; whereas, he would have had nothing but forgotten pleasures. In this world people never ask you if you had money; but they want to know how much you now own.

You say you have no dependents? How about making provisions for your own age? How about insurance against the disability that may happen any day and is very likely to get you in your old age? The time to take out life insurance is while you are young. It is cheaper for you and the older the policy becomes the richer you are and at the same time you are protected for a longer period of time.

Insurance is the one thing that can put the orphanages, poor-houses, and homes for the aged out of business. If everyone carried life insurance, such places would close their doors. At any rate, make sure that you or your loved ones don't land there.

You as a discharged service man, congress out of gratitude for the work you have done for your country is offering you a means by which you may obtain life insurance at a very low rate and secure for yourself the best protection possible. Don't let such an opportunity roll past. Any good life insurance man will tell you to "freeze on" to all the government insurance you can carry. The life insurance companies are boosting government insurance, should you meet an agent who runs it down, you may be sure that he either is uninformed or has a personal and selfish interest which he is hoping to serve.

Remember that if you have dropped any of your insurance—or even if you have canceled it—you can get it again by a new law recently passed. How to do this will be taken up at a later time.

The next article will be a description of the advantages of Government Life Insurance.—By Information Committee of Norman Howard Post, American Legion.

KERR DID MORE THAN PITCH WINNING BALL; HE HALTED TEAM'S STAMPEDE

KERR

By N. E. BROWN.

Evidently Dick Kerr's pitching arm and heart kept on growing for a while after the rest of his body quit. For the diminutive White Sox southpaw, standing 5 feet 7 inches tall and weighing only 155 pounds, showed in the world series that he has the pitching arm and the heart of a giant. But for the cunning of the young man's wing and the fight in his aforementioned heart, the White Sox would not have captured more than one game in their recent Waterloo. For this reason Kerr must be listed among the bright and shining stars of the series.

They call him young, the little chap who was the only Chicago hurler to stand the Cincinnati Reds on their respective ears. He is young in years, only twenty-six, but the road to fame wasn't a short and easy one for him. He has been flinging a ball across various plates for ten years before the great chance came. And from the time he began at Paragould, Ark., until he landed a berth with the White Sox the past season, his tiny build was a handicap. His arm quickly showed its worth before every scout and manager, but each time that the chance loomed for him to go a notch higher someone with a say-so would shake his head and say, "He's too small. Can't stand the cuff. Never make good up here," and other pleasant remarks.

Luckily for Kerr and the men

MUDDY TRAGEDY OF TRENCH LIFE

Cooties, Camouflage, Floods, Rookie Training and Hunnish Influence
Mar Drama in "Shoulder Arms."

The tragic phases of the experiences of the average doughboy, from the time of his first membership in the "rookie" squad until he becomes a full-fledged, dauntless terror to the Hun, is the basis of the story and action in "Shoulder Arms," Charlie Chaplin's second million-dollar picture, to be distributed by the First National Exhibitors' circuit.

Charlie's difficulties begin when his feet attract the attention of the drill sergeant. The command to "take them in—not out," causes complications that threaten to create a private war in Charlie's company. The manual of arms looked easy to Charlie until he tried it. The gun butt persists in stealing the place properly the position of the muzzle, not only to the discomfort of Charlie, but to the anxiety of his companions on the right and left of him.

Finally he arrives in the first line trenches, to discover that his digestive machinery reacts strangely to the thunder of the cannon and explosions of big shells. A mouse trap, purchased for protection against the rumored attacks of rodents, spoils his first salute to his captain by deftly catching his extended fingers in its steel grip. Seeking relief from the strain of a first time under shell fire, he goes in search of his dugout.

"Melody," wrought by an abused mouth-organ in the hands of a bunkie, with a bass accompaniment from another doughboy stretched on a bunk, snoring, convinces Charlie that outdoor life is the thing, even with the odds of flying chrapnel.

Mail day arrives, in the midst of a terrific rainstorm. But it brings nothing for Charlie. Meantime, in the German trenches, preparations are being made for an attack. The military letter carrier returns to Charlie's dugout and gives him a package. From its depth Charlie brings up a limburger cheese and crackers.

Protected by gas masks, the doughboys rush out, and Charlie hurls the offending edible across No Man's Land and into the German trenches. The impending attack by the Huns is effectively checked by the cheese.

Charlie takes part in several raids and volunteers for special duty. Camouflaged as a tree, he goes spying. A party of Germans approach, and Charlie strikes a pose closely resembling a dead stump. The Huns prepare to cut him down with an axe, for use as fire wood. This attempt costs them heavily, and Charlie's fees, penetrating still further into German territory.

He meets another squad of Huns, surrounding his sergeant, who is a prisoner. Charlie rescues him in lively fashion and they make their escape. Closely pursued, Charlie takes refuge in an abandoned French house, badly shattered by shell fire. A French girl appears, and dresses a wound on his hand. The Hun searching party arrives and prepares to take Charlie prisoner by enfilading the upper rooms with a machine gun stationed at the foot of the stairs. Charlie succeeds in outwitting them and escapes with the girl.

Again they are captured, and taken to the German Staff headquarters. There Charlie overcomes an officer, hides him in a closet, changes to his uniform, and appears just as the Kaiser, Crown Prince and von Hindenburg enter. Indicating to them that he has an affair with the girl, Charlie salutes and goes outdoors, only to meet a squad of Huns with his sergeant again a prisoner. He orders the squad to leave the sergeant in his care.

The Kaiser's car stands nearby, guarded by two chauffeurs. While the girl watches Charlie and the sergeant inveigle the chauffeurs out of the car and to a secluded spot behind a barn. Here they overpower them and Charlie dons one of their uniforms, giving the sergeant the garb of the German officer. To the girl he gives the uniform of the second chauffeur. When the Kaiser's son and chief of staff enter the car Charlie is at the wheel, with the girl acting as doorman.

Then comes a mad, bewildering ride with disastrous results for the German war lord and his associates.

PRESIDENT CARRANZA A GOOD HORSEMAN YET

MEXICO CITY, (By Mail).—Correspondents accompanying President Carranza on his trip to the northern part of the republic are willing to concede him first honors as a hardy and tireless horseman despite his sixty years. The President has visited several ranches in Coahuila and Nuevo Leon, making these trips on horseback.

One correspondent tells of a forty five mile ride across the desert, without water and through vision-obscuring dust. At the end of this strenuous ride the President clattered into the little village where he was to spend the night, yards ahead of several of his hardest military men. He apparently suffered no ill effects from the unusual exercise.

Several times the party was caught by darkness on the desert. Camp was pitched and by the light of a log fire the chief executive or Mexico ate his supper and then rolled into his blankets for a night's rest. Inasmuch as President Carranza has scarcely been away from the national palace for a year, surprise is expressed at his endurance. It is said that the former rancher before revolution made him a president, still finds his keenest pleasures out-of-doors and is looking forward to the time when he can return to his farm interests in Coahuila and live again the bucolic life.
